BROOKS COMPLETES RECERTIFICATION EXAM

American Board of Oral and Maxillofacial Surgery examination

MORGANTON, NC – Oral surgeon Dr. Amy Brooks recently completed the American Board of Oral and Maxillofacial Surgery (ABOMS) 2013 Recertification Examination.

Successful completion of the exam, administered by the Chicago-based Board of Oral and Maxillofacial Surgery, ensures that Dr. Brooks remains compliant with certification regulations through 2025.

“Board Certification is a significant personal and professional accomplishment,” said Board President G.E. Ghali, DDS, MD, FACS in a letter to Brooks. “The Officers and Directors of the Board join me in congratulating you and extending our best wishes for your continued success.”

Dr. Brooks practices in Morganton with a patient base covering Western North Carolina. She is a graduate of the University of North Carolina Dental School in Chapel Hill receiving a DDS. She is a graduate of the Louisiana State University Medical School in New Orleans receiving a MD. She completed residency in oral and maxillofacial surgery at Louisiana State University Medical Center.

Dr. Brooks holds a dental license with anesthesia permit as well as a medical license in North Carolina. She maintains privileges at Grace Hospital and membership in the American Association of Oral and Maxillofacial Surgeons, American Dental Association, Western Piedmont Dental Society, First District Dental Society and the American Medical Association. Dr. Brooks is certified in Advanced Cardiac Life Support (ACLS), Pediatric Advanced Life Support (PALS), and Basic Life Support (BLS).
